CO-OCCURRENCE OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND CHILD ABUSE/NEGLECT; AND THE IMPACT ON CHILDREN

Friday, September 21, 2012

8:00am - 9:00am ................................................................. Registration

9:00am - 9:30am ................................................................. Welcoming Remarks

9:30am - 11:00am ................................................................. Keynote Address

The Battered Mother’s Dilemma:
Reframing Child Maltreatment in the Context of COERCIVE CONTROL
Evan Stark, PhD, MSW
Professor Emeritus, Public Affairs/Public Health, Rutgers University-Newark

11:15am - 12:00pm ............................................................. Keynote continued

12:00pm - 1:00pm .............................................................. Buffet Luncheon

1:00pm - 3:00pm ................................................................. Panel Discussion
Roles and Responsibilities, Current Needs and Next Steps
Audience participation encouraged!
Evan Stark, PhD, MSW
Professor Emeritus, Public Affairs/Public Health, Rutgers University-Newark

Lisa von Pier, M.Div, Director
Department of Children and Families, Division of Family and Community Partnerships

Francine Scott, Deputy Director
Department of Children and Families, Division of Child Protection and Permanency

Michael Palmer, PhD, LPC
Healthmark Counseling, LLC

Christine Heer, JD, LCSW
Seton Hall University, Assistant Professor of Social Work

Thomas Dilts, Judge, Superior Court (Retired)
New Jersey, 1991-2011

3:00pm ................................................................. Adjourn