

Internet links for Wine Appreciation

For General Information:

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wine>

There are many links within this article covering many aspects of wine.

<http://www.discovercaliforniawines.com>

From the California Wine Institute.

For information on Wine and Health:

<http://www.cancer.org/Cancer/CancerCauses/DietandPhysicalActivity/diet-and-physical-activity>

American Cancer Society website. Use Search space to find articles on “Wine and Health”, “Wine and Cancer”, etc. The specific link above connects to an article with diet and alcohol consumption guidelines.

<http://www.winepros.org/wine101/wine-health.htm>

Another source with links.

For information on specific wineries:

Many wine labels include a web address where you can get more information about wine made by the vintner. For example:

<http://www.beringer.com>

See their section on food/wine pairings and recipes.

<http://www.robertmondavi.com>

Explore under the tab “Wine Education.”

<https://www.ste-michelle.com>

Explore “wine and food” tab for a video that discusses pairings.

<http://www.gallo.com>

Click on “Our Wines” and then “Browse by Brand” to see the list of 55 brand names used by Gallo. Many of these were independent vintners in the past, like Louis M. Martini® and Mirassou®. Also note that Gallo owns wineries all over the world.

For general information on Cal. Grape varieties, choosing and tasting:

<http://www.thewinetaster.com/index.html>

For general information on Grape varieties:

<http://www.winepros.org/index.htm>

Explore under the tab “Wine 101.”

S.Csontos, revised 28 Feb 2017.